A - Parent/Guardian Authorization - Required For Students under 18 years of age

Dear Parent/Guardian - It is our pleasure to have your child take online classes with us. It can be a huge learning curve for young students to take the steps towards independent learning and managing time. The most successful students are those who have regular support from their families, the school and practise consistent communication with their online Instructor. Please contact us at any time with additional questions or feedback.
